HITSON SCHOOL CLOSING NEXT WEEK

The Herald several days ago delivered some of the most beautiful commencement folders to the graduating class of the Hitson school, we have seen this season.

The class this year is as follows: Shonnie Patterson, Irene Alls, Faye Huddleston, Nora Belle Hill, Ora Belle Hill, Floyd Haught, Donnie Mable Townsend and Marshall Haught.

The first feature of the graduation will be Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Rev. D. G. Reid, pastor of a church at Roby will deliver the sermon.

Hitson school is one of the fortunate school districts of Fisher Co., and in fact the only other school enjoying oil play right up to their doors is that of Swedonia, south of them. Hitson even has an oil well of its own and finances don't bother them any more out there. Besides the benefits from oil to the school, that community is building up some of the best looking homes in the country. It is a fine agricultural district too, and all they need to be extremely happy is a good rain every two weeks in the year.

ATTENDED WEST TEXAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING

W. E. Benson, Tate May, Starr Inzer, Otto Berlin and Clifford Reynolds Jr., attended the meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce held in Brownwood this week. They report a splendid meeting and Mr. Benson, secretary of the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce, will give a report of the meeting in next week's Herald.

Hamlin was represented by Clifford Reynolds Jr., in "My Home Town" contest.

LIFE SKETCH OF W. A. MALONE

W. A. Malone, resident of Jones County for the last thirty years, died at the family home, May 3, 1937, at three o'clock, after a lingering illness of five months. He was born in Alabama in 1882 and came to Texas in 1900, with his family and settled at Killeen, Bell County, Texas. He was married to Miss Gertrude Hedrick in 1905. Three daughters and one son were born to this union. They are: Mrs. Martha Self, of Lubbock, Jim Malone, Mrs. Hedrick Parks and Mrs. Mildred Sharp of Hamlin. His mother, father, three brothers and three sisters of Phoenix Arizona also survive.

Funeral services were conducted in the Dovie church by the pastor, Rev. Ellis Todd, assisted by Rev. Rutherford, pastor of the Nazarene church, Hamlin and Rev. Hanks, pastor of the Hamlin Methodist Church, at 2:30, Tuesday afternoon, May 4, in the presence of a large number of friends. Pallbearers were Louis Thomas, Delma and Alvin Hill, Clarence Earnest.

Flower girls were Mable and Faye Hill, Victoria Crow and Opal Parks. Mr. Malone had a stroke of creeping paralysis the first day of December, from which he never recovered.

Everything that doctors and loving hands could do was done for him, but his health continued to fail. Mr. Malone told his wife and pastor he was tired and ready to go. He was a patient, silent sufferer, never complaining to his faithful wife and other loved ones.

Grieve not for Mr. Malone, he is only sleeping; strive harder to live right and meet in Heaven, where there is no good-byes.

Barrow Undertakers had charge and interment was in East Cemetery.

—Contributed by a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Johnson of Georgetown, Texas, and their son, Leroy, and wife and little son, of Hidalgo, Texas, all former Fisher Co. folks, came up last week to visit Bro. J. A. Young and relatives here and to visit a daughter in Haskell.

—STOP on the RED LIGHT, CAUTIOUS on the YELLOW light, GO on the GREEN light.

Miss Lucille Newsom came over from Abilene Saturday where she is attending McMurry College, to be at home on Mother's Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Newsom. She returned Sunday afternoon.

S. A. Johnson, who lives on a good fruit farm on Highway 15, near the County line, has some fine prospects for a fine crop of berries. He had a prolific cluster sample in town Saturday.

MRS. UBBEN'S FATHER DIED

W. M. Schindler, father of Mrs. J. Ubben, of Hamlin, was found dead in his home near Roby, Monday morning. Mr. Schindler was 81 years of age, but apparently in good health and very active for one of his age. Sunday morning he had taught the Men's Bible Class in the Baptist Church in Royston. In his home that day a number of his children and grandchildren had visited and he was in his usual happy mood, enjoying the play with his grandchildren. At his accustomed time he retired Sunday night and early Monday morning when his wife and son tried to wake him he was found dead.

Funeral service was conducted Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Howell and burial was in a cemetery in Roby.

Mr. Schindler had been a member of the Baptist Church for more than sixty years.

T. E. L. CLASS HAS SOCIAL

The T. E. L. Sunday School Class met in the basement of the First Baptist Church, Friday afternoon, May 7, at 3:00 o'clock, in a monthly business and social meeting, with Mrs. Sank Allen, Pat Allen and John Howard as hostesses. The business hour was in charge of our class president, Mrs. Tate May.

At the conclusion of the business, several interesting games, directed by Mrs. Dode Sanford, were enjoyed.

Refreshments of angel food cake and ice cream were served to members of the class and our associate members, Mrs. Sebastain, Mrs. Shelbourn, Mrs. Day and Mrs. Stell.

Mrs. R. D. Moore is entertaining Tuesday to her home after a visit of three weeks with her son, Raymond Doss and wife and her daughter, Mrs. Lewis and husband, who reside in Hamlin and operate in the oil field. Mrs. Doss had an opportunity to see a good rain just before leaving and can carry back to East Texas a glowing picture of a pretty country.

Mrs. Bert Brydson and daughter, Miss Marjorie May of Austin returned to their home after spending the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Archie Pardue, who accompanied them back to Austin.

Mrs. W. H. Turland and family from Killeen, Texas came to attend the funeral of W. A. Malone. Mrs. Turland is a sister of Mrs. Malone.

FAIR RAINS HELP CROP OUTLOOK

A most beautiful rain visited this part of the country last Sunday night. We say "beautiful" for nothing is so pretty as a real wet rain this time of the year in this country.

The rain came from the northwest and west and appeared to be heavier in the Fisher County area. In and about Hamlin the fall Monday was better than an inch, and in some places more, and yet in others less.

This rain came during the night and part of the morning Monday, making a real nice moisture bed for most of the planting country.

Some wheat had perhaps suffered fatally before that rain, but most of it is benefitted greatly and it now looks as though a fair crop yield will be harvested.

Some farmers had secured a good stand of cotton, before the rain and others had the seed in the ground. The rain was not quite brisk enough to cause packing of dirt on the cotton seed. With the recurring showers it begins to look good for farmers.

MORE RAIN WEDNESDAY, LOTS OF HAIL

Wednesday was one of those days that fool the natives—hot sultry, no sign of rain, but late in the afternoon a sudden flash of lightning and roll of thunder and old timers knew what to look for. Over in the northeast a cloud was forming and rolled southwest with heavy rains and lots of hail, big white hard balls of ice that could have done plenty of damage. The fall of rain was heavy in the Tuxedo country, across southwest.

As an evidence of the heavy rain on the Dry Callie watershed, that wonderful stream, called the pet of Ye Editor, ran bank full, according to the smiling reports of farmers along its banks Thursday morning. Believe it or not a mere sprinkle makes old Dry Callie boom down bank full. A little hail is acceptable if only enough water falls a bit before hand. Wheat will mature well, now where the rains have fallen. No rain in Hamlin or west Wednesday.

DATES FOR FARMERS' SHORT COURSE ANNOUNCED

College Station—The dates for the 28th annual Farmers' Short Course of the Texas A. and M. College has been set for August 16-19, according to an announcement made by Roy W. Snyder, Extension Service supervisor of specialists' work, who is chairman of the general Short Course committee.

The Short Course this year will be of four days duration instead of the customary five, Snyder said.

Three committees in charge of broad phases of the Short Course have been set up. Miss Bess Edwards, assistant state home demonstration agent, is chairman of the technical program committee, which will arrange the educational features of the gathering. M. K. Thornton Jr., leather specialist, heads the administrative committee which will provide accommodations for the farmers, home demonstration club members, and 4-H club boys and club girls who will gather from all parts of the State. And E. R. Eudaly, dairy specialist, is chairman of the joint program and entertainment committee.

Numerous sub-committees have been appointed to handle details of the Short Course.

2000 EXPECTED TO ATTEND SHORT COURSE MAY 21

Denton, May 12.—Over 2000 visitors are expected to attend the annual Short Course at Texas State College for Women on Saturday, May 21. Invitations have been sent to seventy counties in Northeast Texas. Inspection of field plats at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station will form part of the course, which is held in cooperation with the Extension Service of Texas A. & M. College.

Miss Julia O. Newton, Chief of the Family Section of the Farm Credit Administration at Washington, D. C., has been secured as a speaker for the woman's afternoon division, and W. O. Coe of the Rural Electrification Administration at Waco is on the morning program.

A style show will be given for the women at 11:00 A. M., which will be followed by a picnic on the campus. The men will be guests for a picnic lunch at the Experiment Station.

Topics to be discussed in the women's morning sessions will be "Planning the New Farm Home" by

ALL HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS INVITED TO VOCATIONAL DAY, IN DENTON, MAY 15

DENTON, Texas, May 10.—Invitations have been issued to all high school seniors in Texas to visit Denton on May 15 as guests of the two colleges, Texas State College for Women and North Texas State Teachers College, for a Vocational Guidance Day.

Students will register at Texas State College for Women in the morning and will be taken around to the various departments, where each student will have an opportunity to discuss the occupation of his or her choice. At 11:15 a program will be presented for them by the students from the music, physical education, and speech departments of the college.

After a luncheon in the dormitory dining rooms, the visitors will be taken over to the Teachers College, where they will spend the afternoon.

Dr. Turner Bynum and wife returned Monday from San Antonio, where they had spent several days. Dr. Bynum has been somewhat on the sick list recently and he is still keeping close to his room and is improving. He is usually very busy with his patients and general hospital work, and therefore is greatly missed when away from town or sick.

Mrs. Jim Bledsoe, of Hobart, Oklahoma, is here to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Gibson.

If you can't improve your looks, try to improve your mind.

Miss Edith Mae Brisac of the Fine Arts department. "Summer Recreation" by Miss Bonnie Cotterall of the Physical Education department, "Photography as a Hobby" by Miss Corletta Corpron of the Fine Arts department, "The Utilization of Inexpensive Household Equipment" by Miss Mary E. Goldman, of the Home Economics Department, and "What the Farm Woman Should Know About Electricity" by Mr. Coe.

At the Experiment Station, Substation No. 6, particular attention will be given to the work carried on with wheat, oats, barley, legumes, fertilizers, crop rotation and soil rotation. Fred W. Westcourt, director of the department of Rural Arts, is in charge of arrangements.

Amazing New BREAD Diet Helps to Burn Up Fat

—keeps up energy
while you REDUCE

THIS new Bread Diet takes off pounds. Everyone should know that bread itself is not fattening. It is an almost ideal combination of energy-giving carbohydrate and a special form of protein that helps burn up fat while you are reducing.

Unlike extreme diets, the Bread Diet reduces your weight without making you weak and irritable. Extreme diets may result in nervous breakdown, and should be undertaken only under a physician's supervision.

The Bread Diet is absolutely safe for the average overweight person. If you want to reduce safely, go on the Bread Diet. It gives you Bread as the main part of your energy food.

FOLLOW THIS BREAD DIET PLAN

This Diet Plan gives about 1500 Calories a day—the reducing allowance of the average person.

● BREAKFAST
1 glass fruit juice
Small serving meat, fish or an egg
2 SLICES BREAD, 1/2 sq. butter
1 cup coffee (clear) 1 tsp. sugar

● LUNCH OR SUPPER
Moderate serving meat, fish, or 2 eggs
Average serving 1 green vegetable
2 SLICES BREAD, 1/2 sq. butter
Average serving fruit salad
1 glass milk

● DINNER
1/2 glass fruit or tomato juice
Generous serving meat, fish, or fowl
Average serving 2 vegetables, 1 green
Small serving simple dessert
2 SLICES BREAD, 1/2 sq. butter
1 cup coffee or tea (clear) 1 tsp. sugar

May 6, 1937,
Mr. Bowen Pope,
Hamlin, Texas.
Dear Mr. Pope:

On Tuesday, May the 4th, the House of Representatives was honored with the presence of Rev. Bryan H. Keathley, D. D. and National Chaplain, The American Legion, an esteemed constituent of mine and who resides at Mineral Wells, Texas.

Rev. Keathley offered the prayer for the House on the above date and made a favorable impression upon all of those present. I have detached the first page of the Congressional Record on which his prayer appears and which is herewith enclosed and which, in my opinion, would be of interest to your readers in general and to the ex-service men in particular.

Yours very sincerely,
C. L. Garrett.

THE PRAYER:

The House met at 12 o'clock noon. Rev. Bryan H. Keathley, D. D., national chaplain, the American Legion, of Mineral Wells, Texas, offered the following prayer:

"Our Heavenly Father, according to custom, we pause at the opening of this meeting to pray. Since prayer is an expression of thanks, as well as praise and petition, we begin by thanking Thee for Thy blessings to us as individuals and as a nation. We thank Thee again for this glorious Nation of ours, given to us by men and women of strong heart, who were able to defeat all enemies and turned a barren wilderness into a garden fit for the gods, even a 'land flowing with milk and honey.'"

"And now, God, we stand here today with bowed heads, conscious of the fact that we have been selected as leaders in our country; but in these Halls we represent others and not ourselves. We accept our positions as sacred trusts which we dare not, which we could not betray."

"We thank Thee for the indispensable institutions of our Nation—the home, the school, the church, and the state—and ask Thy continued divine blessings upon them. Especially would we remember our President and ask Thee to keep him and give him Thy wisdom, Thy love, the nations of all the earth. Establish peace throughout the earth and hasten the day when men everywhere shall treat each other as brothers and when the knowledge of the Lord shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea.

"O God, in our weakness give us Thy strength; in our hatred give us Thy love; in our darkness give us Thy light; in our strife give us Thy peace. Graciously preside in all our councils and lead us to such decisions as Thou Thyself shall approve and be pleased to bless. In Jesus' name. Amen."

DON'TS FOR EVERY DRIVER

"Drive safely or not at all. Over 25,000 killed by automobiles in the United States in one year.

"A little caution prevents many an accident. Slow down at corners. Most accidents occur there.

"Don't fail to keep your car in good driving condition at all times. Good brakes and lights may save an accident.

"Don't day dream while driving. Don't cut in and out of traffic. Don't drive in the center of the street.

"Don't forget hand signals in making turns. Don't pull out from the curb without hand signal. Don't be a traffic light cheater.

"Don't forget the children. Slow down when you see them. Don't forget that the pedestrians' safety is also one of your responsibilities."

A CITIZEN'S CREED

Hubert Harrison, Manager of East Texas Chamber of Commerce, offers "A Citizen's Creed" which if lived up to would make better citizens, a better town, state and nation. He says:

"I believe in my COMMUNITY, my STATE and my COUNTRY.
"I THANK GOD I am an American and a TEXAN.

"I believe that MEN play a bigger part in town-building than natural resources, and that cities are what men make them.

"I am willing to give my TIME, THOUGHT, ENERGY and MONEY to help advance the welfare of my community, in return for the great blessings I enjoy.

"I am not AFRAID that my competitor will make more money than I will as the town grows.

"I will not be a SPONGE, taking all I can get and giving as little as possible.

"I want to LIVE in my town so that I can leave as a heritage the memory of some SERVICE for the benefit of the community.

"I believe that MY RECORD on earth will be largely my record as a citizen of THIS TOWN.

"I believe in the SUCCESS of my community and want to have it said of me that I PLAYED WELL MY PART.

"I believe in the SINCERITY of other citizens, and will not indulge in Backbiting, SLANDER or KNOCKING against my town or neighbors.

"I am PROUD of MY TOWN and want to live so that the town may be PROUD of ME.

"I will advance the FAME of my town by doing MY JOB the best I can—and perhaps a little better than it is being done ANYWHERE ELSE.

"I will INVEST my LIFE where I make my LIVING."

Health-Wrecking Functional

PAINS

Severe functional pains of menstruation, cramping spells and jangled nerves soon rob a woman of her natural, youthful freshness. PAIN lines in a woman's face too often grow into AGE lines!

Thousands of women have found it helpful to take Cardul. They say it seemed to ease their pains and they noticed an increase in their appetites and finally a strengthened resistance to the discomfort of monthly periods.

Try Cardul. Of course if it doesn't help you, see your doctor.

SUGGESTED AIDS TO PREVENT
TYPHOID FEVER

AUSTIN, Texas.—Dr. George W. Cox, State Health officer, characterized typhoid fever as a National disgrace and an unnecessary evil, while discussing this preventable disease. He said, "Each year about four hundred Texans dies of this disease and approximately four thousand are sick with it. The average duration of illness is about six weeks; this means that the disease is responsible for the loss of 168,000 days in Texas each year."

Typhoid vaccine is a harmless solution. This is injected under the skin in the upper part of the arm, in three doses, usually at weekly intervals. It ordinarily protects against the disease from two to three years or longer, although one who is definitely exposed to infection should be revaccinated more frequently.

Typhoid fever can be controlled by the use of pure water, pasteurized milk or clean milk, clean floors, proper disposal of sewerage, screening against the fly and destroying its breeding places, by search for and care of human carriers, and by the general practice of vaccination.

Certain people, apparently healthy, carry the germs of typhoid in their intestines or urinary tract and cause many cases of typhoid each year through handling foods with unwashed hands. They are called typhoid carriers and many cases result from personal contact with these carriers.

In selecting a place for a vacation choose one where you know that the water and milk supply is pure. Be sure that the kitchen and dining room are screened to protect food from flies. When camping it is best to boil water used for drinking, unless you know that it is pure. Clear, sparkling spring water may be polluted by drainage.

What is the "Low-price Field"?

YOU hear a lot about "the low-price field" these days. A good many cars claim to be in it. So whenever the low-price field is mentioned, remember:

Until Ford came, no average American could own a car.

Today all Ford prices are still low — with the prices of the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 $30 to $60 lower than those of any other car of comparable size.

But with Ford, "low price" doesn't merely mean low figures on the price tag. It means much more than that. It means low prices and low costs all the car's long life. Low prices for service — for parts — and, above all, for operation.

Both Ford V-8 engine sizes are economical to operate. The 85 horsepower gives greater gasoline mileage this year than ever, and the "60" delivers the highest mileage in Ford history.

Private owners, cab companies, fleet operators all report that the "60" averages from 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Check and see how much Ford saves you.

Instant Cube Release Of New Frigidaire

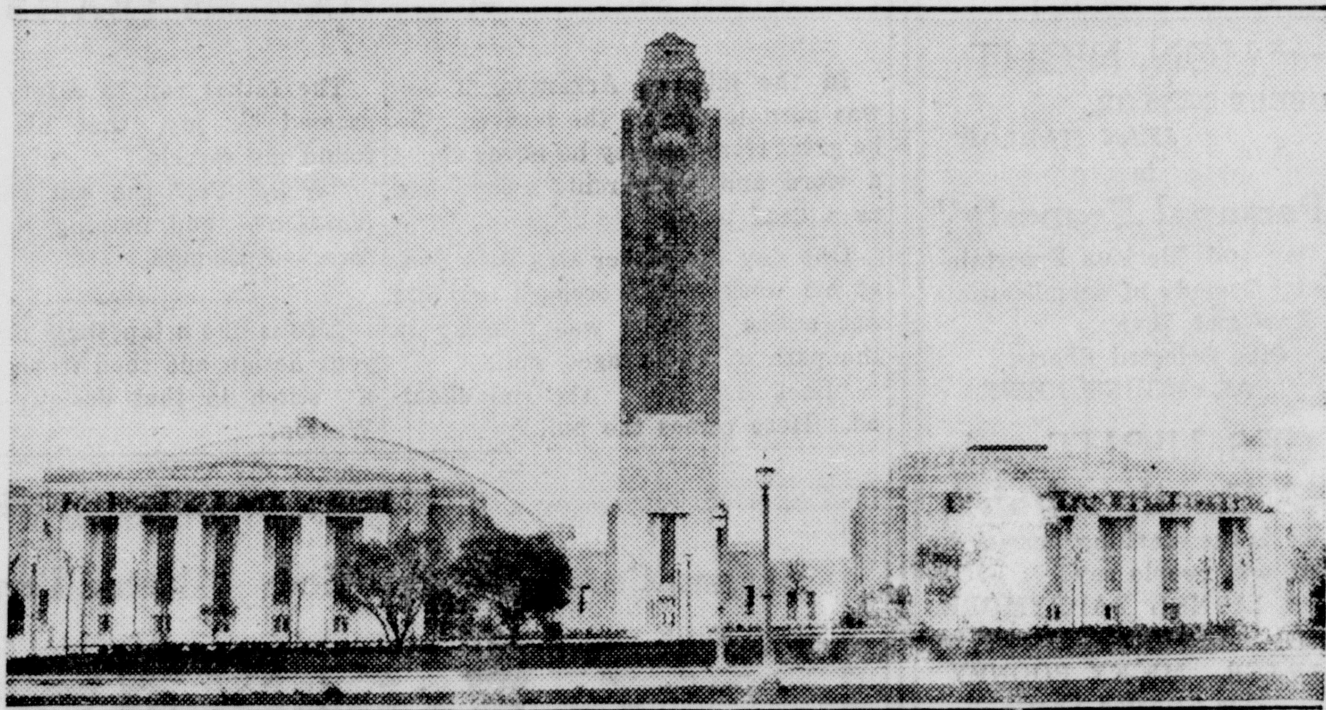

"Gone are the days when tugging, chopping, twisting gymnastics are necessary to obtain ice cubes from an automatic refrigerator," says Mac Brundage, local manager for the West Texas Utilities company — Frigidaire dealers. Shown above is the new and efficient instant cube release featured in the 1937 Frigidaire. Developed in the research laboratories of the Frigidaire division of General Motors, the new type ice tray makes available instantly and with no effort on the part of the user from two to a dozen more cubes doing away with the necessity for holding trays under the water faucet and losing up to 20 per cent of the ice content in meltage. One grasps the tray firmly with one hand, lifts the lever with a finger of the other and there are the cubes ready for use without fuss or muss.

New Buildings at Fort Worth Fiesta

A new million-dollar array of buildings will be in use this summer when the Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta opens, "bigger and better than ever," on June 26. In the picture appear the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum, seating 6,000 (on left); Trail Drivers Tower, 208-feet high, and (right) Municipal Auditorium, seating 2,500. The handsome structures are only a few hundred yards from Casa Manana where Director-General Billy Rose will present a magnificent, new revue.

WHAT DOES MARRIAGE MEAN TO MODERN GIRLS?

Men follow the line of least resistance; if a jumble of genial voices suggests all going to the "Rough House," it seems a good thing to do at the moment, and off the whole swarm goes.

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

THE world is full of men and women who won't solve their own problems. One of them came to see me yesterday. A bright-eyed, well-dressed, nicely-spoken woman, she took up forty-one minutes of my working time in pouring out a story that is so familiar to me that I could have poured it out even more rapidly to her. She is perhaps forty or forty-two years old, she never has conquered the difficulties life has presented to her, and she never will. I could have told her that, too.

Everybody with whom this woman has come in contact has failed her; she has apparently moved through the world trusting, fine, hardworking, honorable, only to meet deception and unkindness and trouble. She feels now that the world owes her a living. She knows hundreds of persons who could perfectly well support her and her aged mother, "But that's the way life is, isn't it? You give and give and give until you've nothing left to give, and you get nothing in return!"

Her husband left her seven years after marriage to go to another woman. Alimony? But he's now been on relief for three years, and he says he can't pay it. He gave her, in parting, a house, which she describes as a wreck, plaster coming off the walls and, of course, no painting done for ages. Her son, now 26, on account of some federal regulation has gone away to another town because he couldn't hold his job while she had hers. She gets $75 a month as manager of a woman's club.

"And what can I do, with Mother on my hands, on THAT?" she demands pathetically. "It's a mere pittance. I have a room in the club, but I can't keep Mother there, I have to have an office. I go home tired at night, and have to start right in getting supper for mother and me. She gets her own lunch, I lunch at the club. Think of it, for her, who used to have four house-servants! Well, that's just typical of the way in which our lives have been changed."

This woman, Jean Brown, wants me to use my influence to get her a post-office position that pays $200 a month. Even supposing me to have any powers in that direction, which I haven't, it might occur to her that I couldn't possibly recommend a person of whom I know nothing but her own story, told in a casual call.

These things never occur to the seekers of favors, and what thousands of them there are! A President's life, a high official's life must be made simply unendurable by them. They waste one's time telling one eagerly and specifically what they CAN'T do; they never mention anything they can. They review what they had in the past, how they lost it, who deceived them, and failed them. Never having lived up to their opportunities they want wider and better ones.

Jean Brown yesterday spoke with deprecating regret of a mere pittance of $75 a month. She told me that she and her mother couldn't possibly live on it. Friends, she said, helped her with clothes and gifts, and her son sent an occasional check, otherwise she didn't know where she and poor mother would be.

Her taxes are $84 a year, making her rent $7 a month. Meals at the outside oughtn't to cost these two women more than a dollar a day. Hundreds—thousands of women are feeding four, yes, and six and eight persons on that.

That leaves a monthly balance of $38. I mentioned this sum, and she looked at me with her bright unthinking eyes and said "True," in a dubious tone that showed me that she actually never had thought it out on the terms of a budget.

"But telephone and magazines and light and shoes and hospitalities, oh, and a thousand things more!" she said cheerfully. "One can't quite vegetate, you know. Mother's always been accustomed to the nice little things that make all the difference, a few flowers, a telegram to a friend, a new book."

Now, the sublime stupidity of such a woman in coming to annoy another busy woman with this sort of a tale is the phase of the situation that interests me. Apparently such a person—and they are by no means confined to one sex—is mentally incapable of working out the real values of our respective services to the communities and the age in which we live. That honest, hard work, that the making of themselves valuable to anyone, anywhere, in any capacity, in any business, is the ONLY way to promotion and success, never seems to occur to them. They think it is all luck and influence and social position, they tell you who their grandfathers were, and that streets in remote cities were named for their uncles, they mention a few very rich friends by their first names, and then they sit back and expect you to do the rest.

Jean Brown felt that she could speak with contempt of a salary that to nine-tenths of the women of Russia or Germany today would mean financial security, that to a Chinese woman would represent actual wealth. Thousands of Frenchwomen, Italian and Englishwomen are raising families in decency and comfort on $75 a month. With thrift and dignity and with the elimination of a great many useless things they think essential to their long-vanished and never-very-important "position" Jean and her mother could set their entire neighborhood an example of agreeable and successful living.

Instead she goes about putting the whole situation dramatically and appealingly to whosoever will listen, criticize the "pin-headed club women" who employ her and retails to all and sundry a list of her rich friends who could perfectly well help her mother and herself, if only they would!

The successful women of this world know that until you solve your own problem, no matter what it is, completely and happily for all concerned, you never are going to deserve a chance to solve larger problems. You may get that chance, for influence does sometimes put strange persons into high places, but you won't hold it; you'll presently be out again, more aggrieved and bewildered than before.

Strange that some women should be born with complete delusions about themselves and life, and that in others, hardly out of childhood, there is planted a real grasp of the truth that includes a position of humility and simplicity and honesty toward material things, like work, and a spiritual attitude that makes all these things supremely unimportant.

In the position of my recent caller another, wiser woman would have gotten that cottage into shape for renting long ago; it has seven rooms, it is much too large for a lonely old lady to inhabit all day long. She would have found some snug little corner for a home; she never would have plastered the house with the two thousand dollar mortgage that was put on it three years ago. She would live well on that $75 a month; and the sense of living well would put new vitality and satisfaction into her whole attitude toward her work.

On the face of it, it is easier to be rich than poor. And to those who are wrestling with real money trouble it seems to be the one real trial in the world. I know it, for there were many years in my life when a very little more money would have meant to me the difference between worry and peace of mind, the difference between dignity and embarrassment, the difference between taking favors or giving favors. I've not forgotten, nor would I belittle the anxiety that shadows the lives of much more than half the men and women of the world.

But one lesson I did learn from the hard years, and it is one that goes far to rob plenty as well as poverty of their real fear and their most constant pressure. I learned that it is better to live in two rooms, and on the simplest and plainest of food, it is better to forego all luxuries, even those that we Americans have come to regard as necessities, than to drag out the miserable pretensions of an existence that depends upon promises, the asking of favors, the wretched consciousness of unpaid bills and unbalanced expenses. It is better to get down under the income, to make a game of living on a little, and to have one's mind gloriously free of the fretting and shaming thoughts that shut the door to anything like escape or success.

"Listen, Folks"

BY JIM FERGUSON

(Editor's Note: This article is published as a news item, and represents the personal views of Mr. Ferguson only).

STOP BOYS, STOP

Senator Nelson from Lubbock, is one of the new Senators now serving his first term. He is only 36 years of age, but is highly educated and is ambitious to render public service and appears to have a good supply of common sense.

While he has been active in support of the bill for repeal of horse racing, he appears to be more interested in the change of our present constitution so as to provide a one house (unicameral) legislature. While his idea will not pass at this session, yet it has received much attention and received a favorable minority support.

Senator Nelson's contention is that a one house legislature will produce both efficiency and economy in legislative procedure. He may be right or he may be wrong. His plan may be correct and yet his idea may never become a law. Time will tell. But he has raised an important issue.

We can never have economy in government until we have efficiency in government—especially in the legislature. This session is about to adjourn and I am afraid the legislature is about to lay itself open to the charge of indefensible extravagance. I do not think I have an enemy in either the House or the Senate, and in the hope of preventing a mistake by my friends I am writing these lines. Stop boys, Stop. Let me call your attention to what you are about to do. If your record would warrant you in laying claims to efficiency or economy, you might be justified in extending your term of office and doing the same for the other departments.

If you do not liberalize pensions you already have 112,000 on the roll, and at $180.00 per year the sum will exceed 20 millions. In one afternoon the Senate appropriated for just three departments 53 millions. Add to these sums the 17 million dollar deficit, growing every day, thus on 3 fingers you are spending 90 million dollars. How much is 90 million? It is $15 a year for every man, woman and child, white and black, in Texas with its 6 million population—yea, $75.00 average for every family of five in our state for every year.

I mention only 3 items for quick calculation and illustration. Millions more will have to be added if present estimates and proposals are voted by this legislature. The totals will finally run over 125 million dollars—20 dollars for every man, woman and child, and $100 for every family for taxes.

Stop Boys, Stop. I plead with you not to adjourn this term until you make some provision to reduce this enormous tax burden and pay the balance. While everybody should pay something to the support of the government in proportion to their ability to pay, yet you, the legislature, should be anxious to provide the tax demanded is no more than is absolutely needed to run the government economically administered.

This is the reason why I so earnestly urge the sales tax, because it requires everybody to pay only in proportion to their ability to pay and no more. It is truly a poor man's tax, the amount of which he can regulate by his own economies.

But whether you agree with me or not as to how the tax is to be collected, this legislature should be careful not to adjourn until provision is made to pay the state's debts. If the legislature does any less, it can not lay claims to either economy or efficiency, and you will not have exercised any more discretion than would a colored man with an open credit account in a general merchandise store. Again I repeat: STOP BOYS, STOP, because I love you and I hope you don't make a mistake which will not be good for you or for the state.

THE GREATEST TIRE EVER MADE TO SELL AT THESE LOW PRICES

COME in, examine a cross section cut from a Firestone Standard Tire, then examine the deep-cut, non-skid tread and see how much extra value you get. You will quickly understand why more and more car owners are equipping their cars with these tires. You will agree that never before have you seen so much quality, so much built-in mileage and so much safety at so little cost. You will find the Firestone Standard Tire is made safer from blowouts with the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping. The patented construction of two extra layers of Gum-Dipped Cords under the tread protect against punctures and bind the tread and cord body into one inseparable unit.

The wider, flatter tread with more rubber on the road will give you longer mileage and greater protection against skidding. Firestone is able to give you all these extra values because Firestone Standard Tires are built in such large quantities that great savings are made in production.

Don't drive another day on thin worn tires that are dangerous and may cause an accident. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign by equipping your car with Firestone Standard Tires—First Grade Quality at Low Cost.

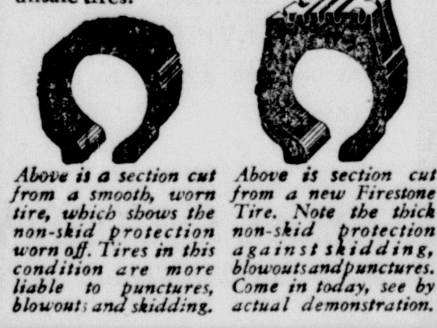

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON THIN WORN TIRES

Protect yourself and your family from the danger of driving on thin worn tires which may cause a serious accident.

DO YOU KNOW

THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children?

THAT a million more were injured? THAT more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to unsafe tires?

Buy Firestone STANDARD TIRES TODAY AND SAVE!

YOU SAVE yourself and your family from dangerous accidents because Firestone patented construction features give you greatest blowout protection and safety from skidding.

YOU SAVE because Firestone Standard Tires give you low initial cost and lower cost per mile.

YOU SAVE by buying now as tire prices are advancing. The price of crude rubber has gone up 110% and cotton more than 26% during the past two years. BUY NOW AND SAVE.

YOU SAVE BECAUSE THE WIDER, FLATTER TREAD GIVES LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE AND PREVENTS SKIDDING

YOU SAVE BECAUSE TWO EXTRA LAYERS OF GUM-DIPPED CORDS MAKE THE TIRE MUCH STRONGER

In the hills of Arkansas, a son was born to one of the natives. As he grew from infancy he never spoke a word and his parents raised him as a deaf mute. One day the father was bent over at his work in the orchard and did not notice that he was directly in the path of an enraged bull. "Look out, Pa," the son shouted. "Here comes the bull."

The father ran to safety and expressed his joy that his son had found his speech. "Well," Pa," the son replied, "I just ain't had nothing to say before."—Exchange.

SMALL GARDENS FOUND

PROFITABLE IN WEST TEXAS

Many home demonstration club members and 4-H club girls in Northwest Texas tell their county home demonstration agent that they have found small gardens which can be well watered and cared for produce more vegetables than larger ones which cannot be as well tended.

A hotbed 11 feet long and three feet wide will be used by Elizabeth Ann Walker, garden demonstrator of the Palo Duro 4-H girls' club in Moore county to produce early vegetables for table use in addition to starting peppers, cabbage and tomato plants. As the plans are set out in the larger garden, the space will be utilized for other vegetables.

Members of the Hackberry home demonstration club in Cottle county have planted small gardens protected by a frame or by canvas which will be protected from wind and sand and can be intensively watered, fertilized and cared for. Vegetables such as lettuce, mustard, tender greens, carrots, radishes, beets, and cucumbers have proved successful in such gardens.

A garden containing only 45 square feet, and protected on the sides with 12 inch boards and on the top by canvas, has been planted to radishes, lettuce and beets by Mrs. C. C. Bristow, co-operator of the Compere home demonstration club in Jones county. Mrs. Bristow has found that the small garden will produce vegetables earlier and longer, but has also planted a larger garden to secure volume for canning.

Miss Juanita Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lee Adams, of the Dovie community, was married to E. R. Bull at Pecos, May 11. They are making their home in Pecos.

Society and Clubs

SCHUBERT CLUB ENTERTAIN WITH SILVER RECEPTION

An outstanding feature in the observance of National Music Week by the Schubert Music Club was the Silver Reception, Thursday evening of the past week, at the High School Auditorium. An operetta, "Heartless House" directed by Miss Edwina Gilbert with Mrs. W. C. Russell accompanist, furnished the program for the evening.

Guests were greeted at the auditorium entrance by the club president, Mrs. Maurice Smith. Others receiving with her were Mrs. Joe McCrary, Mrs. Weldon Grigg, Mrs. J. E. Moody and Mrs. Tom Teague. At the register were Mrs. Clinton Barrow and Mrs. Bill Rountree.

Tea tables, attractively decorated with bowls of roses and lilies, were presided over by Mrs. Ray Willingham, Mrs. Henry Albritton, Mrs. Ira Clements and Mrs. R. B. Wiar.

Ushers were Mrs. W. C. Russell, Mrs. Mart Farrow, Misses Ruby Dean, Marcelle Jones and Pauline Harrell.

MRS. SAULS HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. D. O. Sauls was hostess to the Tuesday Club in her home on Union Avenue, Tuesday afternoon.

Corn flowers were attractively arranged in the room where guests spent the hour playing bridge. Mrs. C. G. Green held the high score.

An ice course was served to Mmes. J. L. Keen, J. C. Culbertson, W. J. Poe, H. O. Cassle, C. G. Green, J. O. Jones and Miss Pearl Whiteley.

MRS. PARDUE HOSTESS FOR LUNCHEON

Snapdragons and other spring flowers added attractiveness to rooms in the home of Mrs. A. E.

Pardue on Central Avenue, when she entertained the Oriental Club, Thursday of the past week, with a three course luncheon.

Following the luncheon games of contract were played, resulting in Mrs. M. T. Woodward holding high score.

Those present were Mmes. C. C. Prater, M. T. Woodward, Vera Nobles, A. D. Ensey, J. F. Taylor, J. O. Jones, R. H. McCurdy, J. P. Morgan and B. L. Jones.

MRS. HUDSON CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. M. T. Hudson was hostess to the Kongenial Kard Klub in her home, Tuesday afternoon. Spring flowers decorated rooms where three tables were appointed for contract. High score for the club was made by Mrs. Nobles and for the guests by Mrs. Rountree. A salad plate with cookies and iced tea was served.

Those playing were Mmes. J. M. Bullard, Fred Carpenter, A. R. Elam, Ray Holdridge, J. Frank Johnson, Raymond Jones, Vera Nobles, O. R. Maples, L. H. McBride, Clinton Barrow, Bill Rountree and Ray Willingham.

MRS. LOW ENTERTAINED BLUE BIRD CLUB

Mrs. Bob Low entertained the Blue Bird Club in her home, Tuesday afternoon, with three tables of contract in play. Mrs. R. E. Johnson received high score award.

A sandwich plate with punch was passed to Mmes. Joe Culbertson, Arice Jones, John Ed Day, F. D. Wells, Paul Fowler, R. E. Johnson, Art Carmichael, Ted Bledsoe, M. T. Woodward, R. E. Harlan, Elmer Feagan and Ineth Williams.
